ESSAY

Please complete the application and submit it along with a 1,000-word essay on one of the following questions. Your essay should be typed and double-spaced.

1. In his Inaugural Address on January 20th 1961, John F. Kennedy implored the American people to “ask not what your country can do for you—ask what you can do for your country.” What might this often quoted mid-20th-century counsel mean for the early 21st-century undergraduate student?
2. If colleges could teach only three courses, which ones should they be and why?
