

2022 Student Development Hilltop Awards

THE 1856 LEGACY AWARD – Rae Green

Student Development shall present this award to a student leader who has made a significant impact in their time at BSC. The recipient shall be a current junior or senior student standing. This student shall be recognized for positively influencing programs or organizations, either as a student leader, or from behind the scenes with a positive attitude, a willingness to help, and a commitment to success. This student exemplifies the BSC mission of living a life of significance and has contributed to the betterment of the college community.

THE NEW STUDENT ORGANIZATION OF THE YEAR – Women in STEM

Student Development shall present this award to an outstanding new student organization formed during the Spring 2021 and Fall 2021 semesters. The winning group will have demonstrated both sustainability and a commitment to its mission. In addition, this group will have contributed meaningful programs or events to the overall student experience.

THE GOLDEN GINGKO AWARD – Warda Merchant

Student Development shall present this award to an outstanding student organization president that served during the Spring of 2021 or Fall of 2021. This individual shall be recognized for leading and encouraging their organization to follow their mission, contribute to the overall campus experience, and to have also prepared the group for a successful transition and continuity.

THE RISING STUDENT LEADER AWARD – Matt Dale

Student Development shall present this award to a student who has demonstrated strong leadership capability and skills. The recipient is a current first-year or sophomore student standing. This student shall be recognized for their commitment to helping their organization succeed while not necessarily holding a leadership position.
