Leslie Brown Pattengill of Norwalk, Conn., recently retired as principal of the Rowayton School in Rowayton, Conn., after 15 years of service. Prior to that appointment, she had served 20 years in special education, including posts as director of the learning center at Brookside School and at Columbus Magnet School, as a classroom teacher for severely learning disabled children at Marvin School, and as coordinator of the Priority School District.

On June 25, 2005, Eusebia C. Sanderson was presented with the Mary Edna Porter Award by Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Birmingham. In her more than 20 years of service to the program, she has participated in countless fundraisers and agency-sponsored events. Among them, she has coordinated Bowl for Kids’ Sake teams that have raised more than $35,000 for the agency.

On Aug. 1, 2005, Alabama Gov. Bob Riley named Teresa Tanner Pulliam of Birmingham a Jefferson County Circuit Judge, Criminal Division. Her ceremonial investiture took place Sept. 7, 2005, at the Jefferson County Courthouse. Pulliam brings more than 20 years of legal experience to the post, having served as both defense attorney and prosecutor. She and husband Max Pulliam ’82, also an attorney, have a six-year-old daughter.

William Connor, executive vice president and CFO of America’s First Federal Credit Union, was profiled in the May 6, 2005, issue of the Birmingham Business Journal.

AmSouth Bank has named James I. Owens Jr. president in the Huntsville area. He will oversee all bank operations for the firm in North Alabama.

Keith Thompson has been named assistant vice president for institutional advancement at Birmingham-Southern. He previously served BSC as a major gifts officer.