Birmingham-Southern College
Calendar of Events

August 23  Move-In Day for New Students, campus
August 23-26  New Student Orientation, campus
August 28  Opening of School Convocation,
10:45 a.m., Munger Auditorium

September 6  Alumni Board Leadership Conference, campus
September 9  Sorority Bid Day
September 12-26  Village Painters Art Exhibition,
8:30 a.m.-4:45 p.m., M-F, Durbin Gallery,
Kennedy Art Center/Azar Art Studios

September 13  Fraternity Bid Day
September 27  Preview Day for Prospective Students, campus
September 28  William DeVan Faculty Recital, 2:30 p.m., Hill Music Building, Hill Recital Hall

October 4  Family Day, campus
October 9-29  Brad Morton Sculpture Art Exhibition,
8:30 a.m. – 4:45 p.m., M-F, Durbin Gallery,
Kennedy Art Center/Azar Art Studios

October 11  Preview Day for Prospective Students, campus

November 4-9  A Midsummer Night’s Dream
Theatrical Production,
Nov. 4-8, 7:30 p.m., and Nov. 9, 2:30 p.m.,
BSC Theatre/Mainstage

November 11  Black and Gold Day, campus
November 15  Miss BSC Pageant, BSC Theatre/Mainstage

For more information on various campus events, telephone 205/226-4696 (Office of Admission), 205/226-4909 (Office of Alumni Affairs), 205/226-4782 (Art Department), 205/226-4935 (Office of Athletics), 205/226-4770 (Meyer Planetarium), 205/226-4950 (Music Department), 205/226-4921 (Office of Special Events), or 205/226-4780 (Theatre Box Office). Or call toll-free 800-523-5793 and ask for the corresponding four-digit extension. Information about most campus events also is online at www.bsc.edu/events/index.htm.

Lidia Bastianich (left) signs a copy of her newest cookbook for Betty McMahon, who, along with her husband, BSC trustee and alumnus John McMahon, hosted the Thursday night Patrons Party in their home.

Assistant Professor of Art Kathleen Spies (right) listens intently as Agnes Gund engages BSC art students in the Durbin Gallery.

Marsha Johnson Evans (left) addresses a group of leadership studies and service learning students while Lt. Col. Marilyn Wills (center) and BSC student Jessica Vincent look on.

Honored with a special GALA Lifetime Achievement Award was BSC alumna Eleanor Kidd, who was one of the founders of the GALA event and included in the first class of honorees in 1973.

Honored with a special GALA Lifetime Achievement Award was BSC alumna Eleanor Kidd, who was one of the founders of the GALA event and included in the first class of honorees in 1973.