condo"sceneng engagements included a November performance with the Berkshire Bach Festival and work preparing choruses for the American Symphony Orchestra performances at Avery Fisher Hall.

A daughter, Jules Elise, was born May 10, 2002, to Vivian Vines Campbell and her husband, David, of Birmingham. Her grandfather is longtime BSC supporter Lanny S. Vines.

A daughter, Mary Elizabeth, was born June 5, 2002, to Dr. Mary Lynn Wells Parker and her husband, Alan, of Dothan. She joins brothers Zachary, 5, and William, 2.

A son, Reeder Noble, was born Feb. 18, 2002, to Dr. Ivey Williamson and his wife, Vicki, of Hixson, Tenn.

William J. Fielitz, a financial consultant at A.G. Edwards & Sons in Savannah, Ga., has earned both the Chartered Financial Consultant and Certified Financial Planner™ designations, which signify his completion of an eight-course curriculum in subjects including financial planning, taxation, insurance, and retirement and estate planning.

A son, Campbell Larkin, was born May 14, 2002, to Traci Thompson Garner and her husband, J effrey Wayne Garner ’90, of Rossville, Ga. He was welcomed home by big sister Caroline.

A son, Benjamin Joseph, was born July 5, 2002, to Jon Hubbert and his wife, Tamara, of Huntsville. He joins big brother Jonathan Maddox, age 3. Jon is assistant district attorney in Madison County and prosecutes felony drug cases.

Elizabeth Kennedy Lawlor has joined the Montgomery law firm Beasley, Allen, Crow, Methvin, Portis & Miles PC as director of public relations.

A daughter, Virginia Stovall, was born Jan. 16, 2002, in Montgomery to Elizabeth Dunn Puckett and her husband, Jeff, of Wetumpka.

In July 2002, Dr. Anne Mitchell Whisnant began a new full-time position as program coordinator for the Mellon Foundation-funded project “Making the Humanities Central” at Duke University’s John Hope Franklin Humanities Institute in Durham, N.C. She reports that she is developing new administrative skills while still making use of the doctorate in history she earned in 1997 at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

‘90

Terri Dykes Firpo is living as a missionary in Thailand. She assists her husband, Brian, who is director of the Khon Kaen Ministry. They have two sons, who are 10 and 7 years old.

A son, Benjamin Isaac, was born May 28, 2002, to Dr. L. Allison Jones-Farmer and her husband, Page. The family has recently moved from Miami to Auburn, where Allison is an assistant professor of statistics in the Department of Management at Auburn University and Page is employed with IBM Global Services.

Tammy Killian, artistic director at Louisiana College in Pineville, La., is on leave of absence to study acting and directing in New York.

Pamela Beard Slate, a founding partner of Slate Kennedy LLC in Birmingham, is president of the Alabama Federation of Democratic Women.

‘91

A son, William Orion, was born Aug. 14, 2002, to Deanna Webb Clark and her husband, Chad, of Rockvale, Tenn.

Dr. Neil Rasmussen, her wife Amy, and their three daughters are living in Headland, where he practices medicine. On Aug. 13, 2002, he was speaker at the meeting of the Headland Kiwanis Club.

James W. Steele Jr., principal accountant at Lovoy, Summerville & Shelton PC in Birmingham.

Dr. Samuel Patton Parker

A daughter, Grace Emily, was born Sept. 2, 2002, to David Lancaster and his wife, Tara, of Leawood, Kan.

A son, Brayden Jackson, was born Dec. 14, 2001, to Dr. Samuel Patton Parker and his wife, Kelly Berry Parker ’93. The family resides in Sam’s hometown of Millbrook, where he has taken over management of his father’s veterinary clinic, The Ark.

Stanley Allen Wade III and Sharon Harworth McDonald were married Oct. 19, 2002, at Chapel at the Park in Gatlinburg, Tenn. The couple will reside in Meridian, Miss. Best man at the ceremony was the groom’s brother, Dr. Brian Kenneth Wade ’94 (Ivey J ohnson Wade ’95). The mother of the groom is Terry Widener Wade ’67.

A daughter, Grace, was born Nov. 20, 2001, to Elizabeth Blanton Campbell and her husband, Brian, of Gadsden.

Laura Elizabeth Hammett and Michael Elliot Cox were married Oct. 19, 2002, at Cullman First United Methodist Church.

Dr. Ann Ratcliffe Jacobson, formerly of Albertville, has earned a degree in audiology from Central Michigan University and completed clinical assignments at the Michigan Ear Institute in Farmington Hills and the Pappas Ear Clinic in Birmingham. She and her...