Birmingham-Southern College offers a variety of programs that allow you to learn Spanish in an international setting.

Child Family Health International (CFHI) Internships - Ecuador
University of Alcala (Franklin Institute) Spain
Pontificia Universidad Católica Madre y Maestra (CIEE)—Santiago, Dominican Republic
Public Health in Urban Environments—iSALUD Universidad (SIT) - Buenos Aires, Argentina
Universidad Nacional de Córdoba-(Spanish Studies Abroad)—Córdoba, Argentina
Toucan Education Program (TEP) Internships in Spanish or English - Belize

Preferred terms of study and internships abroad:
- Sophomore year
- Junior year
- All summer terms
- E-Terms
  (SN299-E-Term in Ecuador)

Learning outcomes of the Spanish for the Workplace major:
• Function successfully in Spanish in a variety of real-life situations including the workplace
• Make polished formal and informal presentations on a variety of topics
• Understand the gist as well as several discrete details of discourse as spoken by native speakers of Spanish at native speed
• Write in Spanish with a high degree of grammatical correctness and appropriate choices of vocabulary and idiomatic expressions
• Converse in Spanish in connected discourse in a variety of time frames

Application and Deadlines on the back
Application Checklist for Study Abroad

Deadlines: (Semester deadlines are 9 months in advance of departure)

- E-Term Contracts: Third Friday in October
- Fall: Last Wednesday in November
- Academic Year: Last Wednesday in November
- Summer: Last Wednesday in January
- Spring: Last Wednesday in April

- Complete the “Application for Study Abroad” on Engage.
- Complete the Scholarship Application on Engage to be considered for study abroad funding.
- Ask a faculty member to send Anne Ledvina (aledvina@bsc.edu) an informal e-mail stating your ability to succeed academically and socially abroad.
- Make an appointment to meet with Anne Ledvina (aledvina@bsc.edu/226-7722) in the Krulak Institute (suite 280/268) to talk about the next steps.

That’s it! Super easy!