Study Abroad Programs in Theater Arts

Birmingham-Southern College offers a variety of programs that allow you to study Theater Art in an international setting.

University of Birmingham—England (UK)
University of Cape Town — South Africa
University of Glasgow - Scotland (UK)
University of Lancaster- England (UK)
University of Wollongong—Wollongong, Australia
Engage London (IFSA-Butler)—London, England
Universidad of Melbourne (TEAN)—Melbourne, Australia
University of Otago (TEAN)—Dunedin, New Zealand
University of Ghana (CIEE)—Legon, Ghana
Shakespeare’s Globe Education Theater Program(AIFS)—London, England

Preferred terms of study abroad:
- Sophomore year
- Junior year
- All summer terms
- E-Terms (GEN299- Ancient Greece: Art Politics, Religion, and Theater)

Learning outcomes of the Theater Arts major:
- Perform acting goals and tactics
- Execute theater designs using appropriate technology
- Function as a member of an ensemble

Application and Deadlines on the back
Application Checklist for Study Abroad

Deadlines: (Semester deadlines are 9 months in advance of departure)

- E-Term Contracts: Third Friday in October
- Fall: Last Wednesday in November
- Academic Year: Last Wednesday in November
- Summer: Last Wednesday in January
- Spring: Last Wednesday in April

- Complete the “Application for Study Abroad” on Engage.
- Complete the Scholarship Application on Engage to be considered for study abroad funding.
- Ask a faculty member to send Anne Ledvina (aledvina@bsc.edu) an informal e-mail stating your ability to succeed academically and socially abroad.
- Make an appointment to meet with Anne Ledvina (aledvina@bsc.edu/226-7722) in the Krulak Institute (suite 280/268) to talk about the next steps.

That’s it! Super easy!